

Please do not change the Indiana law regarding telemarketing calls. Our lives have certainly improved and have become more peaceful now that we are not receiving the 4-8 calls/night we used to get from telemarketers. We have a right to not be bombarded by these calls.